

English Study Abroad Program to Ghana: Literature of the Slave Trade

Dr. Sherry Johnson (johnsshe@gvsu.edu) & Dr. Amy Masko (maskoa@gvsu.edu)

Program	English Majors/Minors	CSAT Majors	African/African American Studies Minors
Courses Taken (6 credits)	ENG/AAA 231 ENG 334	ENG/AAA 231 SAT 495	ENG/AAA 231 or AAA 333 or AAA 490 ENG 334
Requirements satisfied (12-18 credits worth)	-Two courses in the major or minor, including Category A requirement -SWS requirement -One Issues General Education course -Philosophy and Literature General Education course -World Perspectives General Education course	-SAT 495 -SWS requirement -One Issues General Education course -Philosophy and Literature General Education course -World Perspectives General Education course	-Two courses in the minor, including possibility of internship -One Issues General Education course -SWS requirement -World Perspectives General Education course -Philosophy and Literature General Education course (depending on courses taken)

Choose one course from each box to earn your 6 credits and satisfy multiple requirements (depending on your major and minor at GVSU)

ENG/AAA 231: Early African American Literature

- English major or minor requirement in category A (American Lit)
- AAA minor requirement
- SWS requirement
- Philosophy and Literature and World Perspectives General Education requirement

AAA 333: Study Abroad

- Issues General Education requirement

AAA 490: Internship

ENG 334: American Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults

- English major or minor requirement in category A
- Issues General Education requirement

SAT 495: Capstone

- CSAT Major capstone requirement