

Students and Colleagues:

The Office of Undergraduate Research and Scholarship would like to remind you that Grand Valley State University (GVSU) has an enhanced institutional membership with the Council on Undergraduate Research (CUR). This membership allows any faculty member, student or staff member from GVSU to join CUR at no cost to the individual.

If you decide to become a member you would have access to the following benefits: Keep up with inside information on government relations, funding opportunities and breaking news; Receive special notice on all CUR programs and events; Substantial discounts on CUR Institute Registration fees and CUR consulting services; Benefit from CUR Institutional Membership as a public relations tool by mentioning your CUR institutional membership in recruiting materials and grant proposals; Mentoring services; Participation in the Posters on the Hill, a highly competitive event that brings 60 students with their faculty mentor each year to Washington D.C. to present their research on Capitol Hill; Receive CUR Publications; Access to the Registry of Undergraduate Researchers for Graduate School Recruitment ($1200 value); Ten percent discount off conferences such as CUR Dialogues or the National Conference; and Electronic subscription to the CUR Quarterly.

To become a member please follow the directions outlined on the CUR letter below.

We hope that you take advantage of this free and beneficial resource. Please feel free to contact the office with any questions or concerns at ours@gvsu.edu or by calling (616) 331-8100.

Sincerely,

The Office of Undergraduate Research and Scholarship
