2:10 - Welcome Remarks

2:20 - Elvira (Play) & Milly & the Lords (Movie)

4:30 - Intermission

4:45 - Young Lords in Lincoln Park Program

The Young Lords were part of a historical movement in the U.S. where youth questioned and challenged many decisions of government and experimented with alternatives to deal with issues of civil rights, racism, and social Justice. The Latino Civil Rights movement led by César E. Chávez encouraged and inspired members of the Young Lords to organize groups in search for social, economic, and political rights.
