Patti Solis Doyle

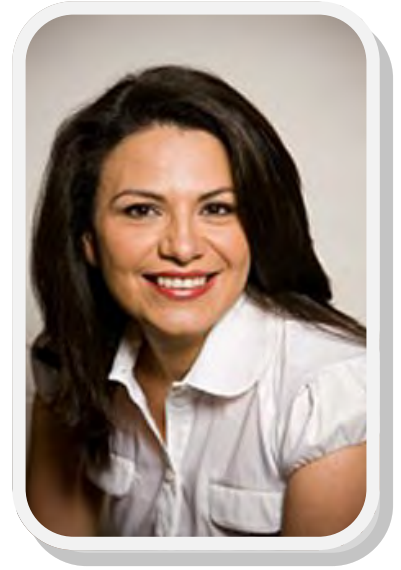

Women and Minorities in the Political Arena

Wednesday, October 3, 2012

4-5:30 p.m.

Cook Dewitt Center

Allendale Campus

As campaign manager for Hillary Clinton in 2008, Solis Doyle was the first Hispanic woman to lead a presidential campaign — working in an arena in which there aren't many women campaign managers and fewer people of color in those roles.

She worked to promote Clinton administration policies on children, health care and women's issues, and helped garner political support for other national Democratic candidates. Solis Doyle has been honored by Hispanic Magazine with the "2007 Latinas of Excellence Award" for her accomplishments in the area of government, politics and civil leadership. She also received Siempre Mujer magazine's Siempre Inspiran award, honoring remarkable Latinas whose achievements and contributions to their communities are helping shape the future of Hispanic women in this country. Hispanic Business Magazine recently counted her among America's 100 Most Influential Hispanics.

Events are free and open to the public. For information on parking or for individuals requiring special accommodations, please contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at (616)331-2177 or email us at oma@gvsu.edu.
