Open Access Publishing Support Fund

- The primary goal of this program is to remove financial barriers that prevent researchers from publishing in open access journals
- The Libraries will cover up to $3,000 of author submission fees to support the ability of researchers to publish in established open access peer-reviewed journals and peer-reviewed journals that have an open access option
- Applications available at the CSCE website

*Enhancing your ability to publish

Grand Scholar

- connects researchers to researchers fostering synergistic collaborations!
- is a searchable database designed to support undergraduate and graduate student participation in research and creative activity across GVSU
- includes profiles for GVSU faculty members with information about their research interests, as well as a listing of posted openings for undergraduates and graduate students on research projects

*Enhancing your ability to collaborate

Cayuse 424

System-to-System web-based platform which speeds up the submission process and reduces the risk of errors.

Features and benefits include:

- Easy navigation between multiple proposal forms
- Autofill capability eliminating multiple entries
- Automatic error tracking and correction
- PC & Mac compatible

Research Protections Program

The RPP ensures the safe, ethical conduct of human, animal and laboratory research compliant with University policy and regulatory requirements.

Prior to the start of any teaching or research effort, GVSU faculty, staff and students should be aware of training requirements, regulatory compliance, and University policy when engaged in activities in the following areas:

- The conduct of exempt and non-exempt human subjects research
- Teaching or use activities involving vertebrate animals
- Use of radioactive materials or radiation producing equipment; chemicals and other hazardous materials; biological agents and recombinant DNA

Technology Commercialization Office

The TCO is the university's intellectual property administration center, serving GVSU's researchers and inventors with licensing, patent, and technology commercialization issues and acting as an active liaison to parties interested in leveraging GVSU research or materials for academic or corporate endeavors.

- Assists in the identification of patentable and copyrightable inventions
- Licenses the university's technologies;
- Facilitates collaborations between researchers, companies, and entrepreneurs;
- Encourages and supports product development and entrepreneurial activities within the university.

Statistical Consulting Center

The SCC provides statistical advice and assistance with projects that are for research or instructional purposes. The biostatistics graduate students and statistics undergraduate students get the opportunity to work with researchers across GVSU and its environs. Learning through engagement is fostered by giving the students opportunities to lead certain aspects of the projects.

- Developing a questionnaire
- Designing a study
- Selecting a sample
- Managing and Analyzing data
- Interpreting results
