Emphases: choose one (at least 21 credits)

Classical Languages Emphasis

Students electing the Classical Languages emphasis have flexibility in pursuing a course of study in both ancient Greek and Latin

Requires 23 credits of instruction in ancient Greek and Latin, including at least 6 credits in either ancient Greek or Latin at the 300 level or above

Greek Emphasis

Students electing the Greek emphasis focus upon that language

Requires at least 21 credits of instruction in ancient Greek at the 202 level or above, including at least 18 credits at the 300 level or above

Latin Emphasis

Students electing the Latin emphasis focus upon that language

Requires at least 21 credits of instruction in Latin at the 202 level or above, including at least 18 credits at the 300 level or above

Latin Emphasis for Secondary Education

The Latin Secondary Education Emphasis offers prospective Latin teachers preparation in Latin comprehension and instruction and in classical civilization at a level consistent with state and national norms Please see the College of Education requirements on reverse

At least 21 credits of instruction in Latin at the 202 level or above, including at least 18 credits at the 300 level or above, 3 of which must be LAT 535 Latin Prose Composition

Classical Tradition Emphasis

The Classical Tradition Emphasis focuses upon the legacy of the classical world and specifically investigates the relationship between Greek and Roman civilizations and the literary, artistic, intellectual, social, and political traditions of other cultures. Students who seek a broad acquaintance with the classical world, but whose interests do not fit easily into other emphases, have the opportunity to design individual programs to fit their talents, interests, and career goals

Requires at least 9 credits of instruction in either ancient Greek or Latin at the 202 level or above, including at least 6 credits at the 300 level or above

At least 15 additional credits of departmental and non-departmental courses according to an approved study plan

Senior Integrative Essay-students also plan and submit a Senior Integrative Essay; consult the departmental advisor for further details

It is imperative to meet with your faculty advisor and an advisor in the CLAS Academic Advising Center regularly.

The CLAS Academic Advising Center is located in C-1-140 MAK, 616-331-8585.
