

BROOKS COLLEGE OF INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

PROPOSAL FOR IDS X80 COURSES

Email all proposals to the Chair of the Brooks College Curriculum Committee
(Call 331-8655 to determine who this is, as the chairperson role changes each year)

IDS courses must be interdisciplinary in nature. X80 approval is for a single semester. If you would like to offer the course again with a GE designation, please email gened@gvsu.edu for more details.

Name of Instructor: _____
Course Number: _____
Course Title: _____
Number of credits: _____
Semester offered: _____
Class format (regular, hybrid, online): _____
Class location (which campus or online): _____

Course Description (100 words max):

Describe how the proposed course is interdisciplinary:

(Interdisciplinarity is an approach to teaching, learning, research, or problem-solving that seeks to integrate the concepts and methods of different academic disciplines or modes of inquiry in order to solve a problem or understand a phenomenon.)

Describe your academic credentials for teaching this interdisciplinary course (degree earned; research/scholarly expertise):

Outline of topics to be covered during the semester:

Possible Course Texts:

Requesting General Education Designation? If so, fill in the following:

Foundation (list) _____
Cultures (list) _____
Issues (list) _____

Briefly describe how you will teach the Knowledge Student Learning Outcomes for the General Education Designation(s) you've chosen above (see the GE Handbook for details or email gened@gvsu.edu)

Briefly describe how you will teach the Skill Student Learning Outcomes for the General Education Designation(s) you've chosen above (see the GE Handbook for details or email gened@gvsu.edu)

Signature, Proposer of Course: _____

Signature of Proposer's Unit Head: _____

Brooks College Curriculum Committee Action:	Approved	Rejected
General Education Committee Action:	Approved	Rejected