

Course Name	Hospital Community Experience I-III
Course Number	PAS 572-574
Course times	Wednesdays, 9am-11:50am Hours may vary depending on site
Course Coordinator (GVSU)/Course Director (ARC-PA)	Michelle Strange, DMSc, PA-C CHS 232 616-331-5577 strangem@gvsu.edu
Course Learning Outcomes (ARC-PA)/Student Learning Outcomes (GVSU) and Instructional Objectives Relevant to HCE Preceptors	At the completion of this course, PAS Student will be able to <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Define roles and responsibilities of various health care professionals. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Observe various health care professionals and settings. b. Interact with other health care professionals 2. Interact with PAs in various unique medical settings. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Interact with other health care professionals 3. Apply knowledge learned in the program in the care of an older adult. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Recognize the complexities in care of the older patient b. Utilize resources in the community to provide care to an older adult, including referral services (i.e., OT and PT), case management or care coordination, multipurpose senior centers, daycare/day health care programs, in-home care, and senior housing 4. Understand the ways PAs can interact with various members of the health care team. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Observe various health care professionals and settings b. Interact with other health care professionals 5. Recognize the role a PA will have in public health. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Observe the role of the public health system in patient disease prevention, surveillance, reporting, intervention, patient advocacy, and maintenance of population health