Welcome to CECI Advising

Message from Melanie

Semester starts in just 2 weeks, and we are so excited to have you on campus! Whether you're back again or here for the first time, we can't wait to collaborate.

This newsletter is what our advising office uses to update you, remind you, or inform you of the most important dates, deadlines, opportunities, and resources related to you being successful in one of our CECI programs.

You can scan, you can read deeply, or you can save it all for later!

We Belong

Academic advisors with the CECI Undergraduate Advising Center are here to help you. Whether you're looking for guidance in your major or just want more information about our programs, the advisors are here to collaborate with you, encourage you, and support you. Together, you and your advisor will work toward developing useful skills, gaining power over your journey, and creating effective strategies to achieve these goals.
