Become a CECI Fellows Today!

Now that you've started your classes, you might feel like a mentorship experience would enhance your year. Our CECI Fellowship mentor program is here to guide you through every step.

All Mentees are paired with a CECI Fellows Mentor through a sensitive match-making process. When matching you with a peer mentor, we consider things like academic program, hometown/home region, and areas of interest/future career goals. Mentors and mentees are supported by a team of professionals in the CECI Office of Undergraduate Advising to ensure the most positive and productive relationships.

To learn more, please feel free to email Melanie Rabine-Johnson, our Retention Specialist and peer mentor program director.
