

GRAND VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Support for Teaching and Research

Instructional support

- Dedicated liaison librarians to serve as your first point of contact, for every department.
- Online videos and tutorials; can be customized for specific courses.
- Blackboard support to embed library resources into courses.
- Textbook support to help locate online versions.
- Special Collections and University Archives
 - Class visits for unique active learning experiences
- Curriculum Materials Library
 - Diverse collection of puppets, teaching aids, big books, and more (Steelcase Library)
 - K-12 print materials (Mary Idema Pew Library)

<https://www.gvsu.edu/library/faculty>

Scholarly Support

- ScholarWorks@GVSU--open access repository
- Open Access Publishing Fund
- Accelerating Open Educational Resources (OER) grants and workshops
- OER curation service to identify options to consider for your course.

<https://www.gvsu.edu/library/sc/>

Student-Centered

- Knowledge Market
 - Peer-to peer assistance online or in person
 - Research | Writing | Presenting | Digital Projects
 - Equipment and recording spaces available in the Digital Creator Lab
 - Online Resource Market for guide sheets, citation help and topic ideas.
 - Drop-in or by appointment
- Additional Help Options
 - Consultations with liaison librarians
 - Online research guides for every subject
 - Online chat | phone | text | email

<https://www.gvsu.edu/library/km/>

Locations

- Mary Idema Pew Library and Learning Information Commons | Allendale Campus
- Steelcase Library | Pew Campus, Grand Rapids
 - Curriculum Materials Library
- Frey Foundation Learning Commons | Health Campus, Grand Rapids
- Seidman House, Special Collections and University Archives | Allendale Campus
- Request books from all locations delivered to the library most convenient to you.
- Request materials not in our collections through our Document Delivery service

<https://www.gvsu.edu/library/>