

PRESENTED BY THE WRITING CENTER

FACULTY WRITING AND TEACHING SUPPORT

CLASS PRESENTATIONS AND WORKSHOPS

You can request a team of writing consultants to join your class for peer review sessions, writing workshops, or other facilitative requests. Writing consultants can also do in-class presentations to help ensure your students know what services are available and how to access them.

WRITING RETREATS

These 5-day retreats (offered in early May and early August each summer) are an opportunity for faculty and staff to make progress on their own writing projects. Coffee/tea, food, and a productive environment are provided and faculty and staff from all disciplines are welcome. If interested in attending or learning more, contact Patrick Johnson (johpatri@gvsu.edu)

ONLINE RESOURCES

The Writing Center website has materials to aid you in the teaching of writing, including syllabus blurbs on WC services, instructional videos, writing resources, and more.
