Question for Reflection:

The assessment I am involved with does more than jump through a hoop. That is, I know how to use what I learn from assessment data collected to make informed decisions about teaching or programming.

ASSESSMENT RATIONALE

- Institutional Accreditation
 - Program Quality
- Effective Teaching / Services

INSTEAD OF VIEWING
ASSESSMENTS AS A HURDLE TO CLEAR, IMAGINE THEM AS MIRRORS THAT REFLECT THE

Importance of Co-curricular programs

01

They amplify and complement the academic experience

02

They address the whole student—mind, body, and community connection—so that learning is not just about passing exams

03

They cultivate well-rounded individuals ready for life beyond graduation

‘we could do a better job of integrating faculty and staff into more of this work together’

Equitable Assessment

Each student carries a unique set of experiences, backgrounds, and aspirations into the classroom.

NO MORE TRADITIONAL ASSESSMENT WITH A
ONE-SIZE-FITS-ALL MINDSET!

‘When we apply an equity lens, we’re not just making sure everyone takes the same test; we’re asking whether our assessments allow all students to demonstrate their full range of abilities and knowledge.’

Sharing Success Stories

- lack of faculty engagement

- Data Use

IF WE THINK ABOUT ASSESSMENT AS A BRIDGE -- ONE THAT CONNECTS STUDENTS TO A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF THEMSELVES AND THEIR DISCIPLINES -- THEN OUR TASK IS TO BUILD THAT BRIDGE WITH CARE, COMPASSION, AND CLARITY.
